The diagram shows a Go board with columns labeled A through T and rows labeled 1 through 19. Black stones are numbered 1 through 115, and White stones are numbered 1 through 108. The board is filled with stones, with Black stones generally occupying the left and center, and White stones occupying the right and center. The stones are numbered to indicate the order of play. The board is a standard Go board with a grid of intersections. The stones are placed on the intersections. The numbers on the stones indicate the order of play. The diagram shows a complex game position with many stones on the board.
