The image displays a 19x20 grid representing a Go board. The horizontal axis is labeled with letters A through T, and the vertical axis is labeled with numbers 1 through 19. Each intersection of a letter and a number contains a circle with a number inside. The circles are colored black or white, indicating the player's color. The numbers inside the circles range from 1 to 259, representing a specific Go position. The grid is oriented with A-T on the horizontal axis and 1-19 on the vertical axis.
